

CUPW Prairie Region

Education Seminar

DATE: October 1 to 6th, 2017

Location : Whistler , British Columbia

COURSES

1. Turtle Island (Urban, or RSMC/PSBU

The Turtle Island course aims to build meaningful, long-term relationships with Indigenous peoples inside and outside our workplaces. The course identifies key moments in Indigenous peoples history in Canada, connects these historic events to the current context, and debunks myths and stereotypes.

It concludes with participants identifying ways to act as effective and respectful allies to Indigenous peoples in their struggle for decolonization.

2. Fighting Back: A Primer in Local Postal Worker Power/Media Training (Urban or RSMC/PSBU

This course is about building alliances in the community, labour movement, and workplace. It will increase participants awareness of their power and explores how to forge community/labour movement/ workplace alliances. Members find the roles they can play to strengthen their individual parts, and as a whole.

With the Media Training component, participants enhance their understanding of the media, and learn how to create and deliver a clear, effective message. They also look at the use of social and community media. A CUPW media specialist delivers some of this course and assists with media role plays.

Note: This course is recommended for local executive members who interact with the media, or members who may well do so in the future.

Interested members should be made aware that all sessions of the course are mandatory. Please instruct participants to inform the local and REOO of any medical conditions that must be considered and ask participants to refrain from wearing any fragrances during the sessions to protect those with fragrance sensitivity allergies.

Participants are expected to share accommodations, any change must be authorized by the Regional Office beforehand.

Registration Deadline is : MONDAY – AUGUST 21, 2017

This education program falls under Article 11.06 of the National Constitution and expenses for delegates are paid under Article 7.42, which includes meals, transportation and accommodation.
